

PAGE 88 (Four panels)

Panel 1: Chiba underwater in the tank. She is swimming upright and has taken a fish out of the bag tied to her belt, which she is holding in her hand. One of the creature's tentacles is extending toward her.

Panel 2: One of the tentacles is wrapped around the fish. The other has grabbed onto one of the shoulder straps of Chiba's suit and is pulling it down.

Panel 3: The Cub Scouts again, who are staring at this scene gap-mouthed and obviously very interested in what will happen next.

Panel 4: Chiba using her free hand to swat at the tentacles aiming at molesting her. Her shoulder strap is down around her upper arm.
